

FIRST NAME: Daniel LAST NAME: Lewis
PERIOD: F

Fine Arts Enrichment
Mr. Lewis

20
20

Quiz 1 / Weeks 1-3

MULTIPLE CHOICE 2pts each -- Circle the correct answer:

- 1) In a persuasive talk, we introduce ourselves by name to our audience because:
 - a) Some people may not know who we are.
 - b) A name can help a stranger become more personal to others.
 - c) Giving one's name can help build trust with an audience.
 - ☒ d) All of the above
- 2) A persuasive speech has a conclusion because:
 - a) It helps people to know that "boring time" is almost over.
 - b) Everyone uses a conclusion these days.
 - ☒ c) It tells why your story is important to them, and how they can make a change.
 - d) None of the above
- 3) A good exposition in a persuasive speech gives the audience:
 - a) An exposition is wrong for a persuasive speech, and should not be used.
 - b) A body, a large amount of details, and a conclusion
 - c) A pantomime, a drama, and a body.
 - ☒ d) An "attention grabber" sentence, an interesting fact, and the reason for your talk
- 4) Pantomime is:
 - ☒ a) Using your eyes, facial expressions, and body positions to express an idea.
 - b) Speaking clearly with good diction, (also known as one's "sports voice").
 - c) Following the tele-prompter when giving a speech.
 - d) Only used in stories about aliens, attorneys, and their clients.
- 5) Knowing your core and the values around your core can:
 - a) Help you get involved in what you love.
 - b) Help you persuade others through your experiences that shaped your core.
 - c) Help you resist peer pressure, because you know what is important to you.
 - ☒ d) All of the above.

----- TRUE/FALSE 2pts. each -----

- 6) Persuasive speaking is only for professional speakers in front of an audience:

True or ☒ False (Circle one)

- 7) Being aware of how "the actor" works in each of us, can help us communicate better in many situations, (not just as entertainers).

☒ True or False (Circle one)